

NEXUS GLOBAL SOLUTIONS PORTFOLIO A (EURO)

A Sub Fund of Libero International SICAV plc

FACTSHEET - January 2024

INVESTMENT PROCESS

The fund manager's approach to investment combines strong valuation disciplines within a long-term strategic framework, together with a willingness to adjust asset allocation and stock selection in response to short term market opportunities. The Fund is not constrained by one particular investment style such as growth or value, but instead the manager believes that the best returns are achieved by correctly positioning the portfolio to benefit at all stages of each economic cycle. The manager has the mandate to search out value in all asset classes and so is well placed to judge the relative merits of a wide range of investment opportunities.

MARKET COMMENTARY

After something of a reality check in the third quarter, the last two months of the year saw strong returns across most major asset classes. Growing anticipation that central banks will cut interest rates sooner in 2024 than previously expected resulted in a broad rally and the Solutions portfolio benefitted, rising 3.85% in December, resulting in a 2023 return of +4.91%.

The end of the 'higher for longer' narrative boosted growth stocks over the quarter, but value stocks also delivered very respectable returns. Real estate investment trusts and small cap stocks, which had struggled in the face of higher rates, bounced back as the market priced in six cuts for the Federal Reserve in 2024.

The US was the standout performer in the equity space in 2023, boosted by a handful of large tech companies deemed at the forefront of Artificial Intelligence (AI). Around half of the US market returns came from the "magnificent seven" tech companies, of which the Solutions portfolio owns five. These seven firms now make up a larger proportion of the world equity index than the cumulative weighting for all UK, French, Japanese and Chinese stocks.

In December a number of our growth stocks performed well, including AMD (+21%) and Micron (+11%), whilst United Rentals, Rockwell Automation and the relatively new holding Sika also made pleasing progress. Bonds continued their good run, particularly longer duration stocks, whilst all sub-sectors within alternatives added value.

Looking ahead, there is plenty of political uncertainty on the horizon with UK and US elections expected in the coming 12 months. Equity valuations are still fairly reasonable, although there is a concern that markets are still quite optimistic on earnings. We continue to focus on quality and diversification within the portfolio.

INVESTMENT THEMES

Micron

In December Micron, a manufacturer of both DRAM and Flash Memory, reported first-quarter results that topped estimates on both the top and bottom lines. Businesses have begun to incorporate generative artificial intelligence (AI) into various products and services, and memory is a key ingredient in AI servers.

Demand for Micron's new High Bandwidth Memory (HBM3e) has been very strong, while more broadly demand looks to be outstripping supply in 2024, leading to improved memory pricing.
